Gulumoerrgin knowledge of language and culture is adapted here with information sourced from Larrakia and Limilngan elders from 1989 – 1994. We acknowledge the assistance of the Northern Territory Government in the collation of that information.

Gulumoerrgin Seasons

- BER
  - Dalirrgang
    - SEPTEMBER
      - The Red Flowering Kurrajong (Flying Fox) eat the flowers. Their sweet scent signals that the season is the first rains. Favourite shellfish are collected. Periwinkles and Mussels) and (Barramundi) become plentiful. The rainy season is the time for ceremonies and celebrations.
    - OCTOBER
      - The Cocky Apple (possum tucker) drops a carpet of white flowers. Their sweet scent signals that the season is the Big wind.
    - NOVEMBER
      - The Cocky Apple (possum tucker) drops a carpet of white flowers. Their sweet scent signals that the season is the Big wind.
    - DECEMBER
      - The Red Flowering Kurrajong (Flying Fox) eat the flowers. Their sweet scent signals that the season is the first rains. Favourite shellfish are collected. Periwinkles and Mussels) and (Barramundi) become plentiful. The rainy season is the time for ceremonies and celebrations.
- BER
  - Balnba
    - JANUARY
      - The start of the wet season brings on fruiting of (Pink Wild Apple) and Milky Plum. The Red Dye Plant is fruiting. It is used to dye. (Bush Potato) are in full bloom. (Waterlilies) are in full bloom.
    - FEBRUARY
      - It is a time of feasting on the tucker. The Yellow Kapok is flowering. It signifies the time of life, rebirth and rejuvenation. The skies are clearing and the clouds are high.
    - MARCH
      - (Kangaroos) and (Magpie Goose) are feeding. (Black Cockatoo) and (Black Dog) are abundant. The north-west winds will blow by the end of this season. 'Build-up' is the season of the first rains.